THE EASTERN WAR.

The Situation Around Plevna.

Correspondence of the Star.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29, 1877.

The Sioux chiefs, who have had three pow-wows with Father Hayes, are rather disgruntled at their want of success. They did not like the firmness and decision with which the President informed them they must go to the Missouri River reservation. The only thing that will make the dose go down at all is the fact that the President promised them they need not remain there longer than this winter unless they wished to. If, when spring comes, they are dissatisfied still, they can select a reservation to suit themselves. It is hoped the Sioux will go willingly; otherwise they can make a world of trouble.

THE ELECTION PROSPECTS.

It is now thought, as election day approaches, that most of the Ohio clerks will accept the reduced rates on the Pennsylvania Central, good for the month of October, and go home to vote. It is thought that Hon. John Sherman's recently published letter in the Ohio State Journal, expressing earnest sympathy and strong hopes of West's election, has had something to do with producing this change of intention on the parts of Ohio clerks in Washington.

ON TO RESUMPTION!

The Treasury officials say that arrangements are being made to organize a great many new National Banks as soon as there shall be anything like a healthy revival of business, and that the old banks will deposit new bonds for an increase of their circulation. This will of course enable the Government to retire Greenbacks without contracting the currency, and so help on resumption by reaching the limit fixed by the Resumption Act, viz.: $300,000,000.

FIRE-PROOF BUILDINGS.

The Committee appointed to examine the Public Buildings and report upon their capacity to resist fire, viz.: Messrs. Hill, Supervising Architect; Mr. Clark and Superintendent Casey, are hard at work. The probability is that every public building, except the new State Department, will need overhauling and repairs to make it safe.

THE ARMY.

The Secretary of War is at work on a comprehensive plan for the increase of the army and the promotion of its efficiency in other respects, which he expects to submit to Congress at its extra session.

PARTY SPECULATIONS.

The Republicans here have taken fresh hopes of carrying Ohio, owing to the claim that the Republicans have more generally registered than the Democrats. That may be true, but you can not very well tell how all Republicans are going to vote this fall. A good many of them have registered for the purpose of scratching and smashing rings, we guess. There is talk, too, that serious dissatisfaction exists towards Bishop among the Irish voters in your city, on account of Know-Nothingism against him, and that the Irish Unionists have come out for West. It is evident the eyes of the Administration are firmly fixed on the good outlook in Southern Ohio. J. G. Thompson says the Western Reserve Republicans are not going to poll within twenty thousand of their usual vote this year. He says that J. G. expects to be true, then verily West will be a bon-a-bide Democrat.

HELP NOT NEEDED.

Late advice from Senator Conover, of Florida, represent him as laying the ropes for his re-election by the present Democratic Legislature, he pledging as a basis for the trade that he will desert the Republicans this winter and not with the Demos. Bayard, Thurman, and who, not knowing the Secretary, yanked him across the hall when he tried to enter. Hon. Carl was some mad.

AT THE PATENT OFFICE.

Secretary Sulz, having been bored to death by applicants for clerkships by men who think help is needed on account of the late fire, has announced that he doesn't need any additional assistance, and will not consider any applications. He is also sorely beset by laborers who want to help clear away the debris. A lot of heavy canvas tarpaulins are being stretched over the burnt portion of the Patent Office to protect the lower stories from danger by rain. The bids have been opened for the temporary roof, and the decision will be made on Monday. They ranged from $30.00 to $50.00, showing that great minds will differ. The committee continues to investigate the cause of the fire, but they are not making satisfactory headway. Not nearly so many lithographic drawings have been destroyed as was at first supposed. The unjured models are being arranged and put in good order in the model gallery. Secretary Sulz has had his coat repaired, which was nearly torn off him by a faithful policeman who had orders not to admit strangers and who, not knowing the Secretary, yanked him across the hall when he tried to enter. Hon. Carl was some mad.

General Cassius M. Clay Kills a Desperado.

RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 1.—Hon. Cassius M. Clay, formerly Minister to Russia under President Lincoln's Administration, yesterday shot and killed a negro man, Perry White. Clay had dispatched White's mother for robbing him of silver ware and had ordered White to keep off his lands. White threatened Clay's life and met him near a negro church in the neighborhood, when the latter thought that he was about to be attacked, and pulled his pistol and shot twice in the breast, killing him instantly. General Clay gave himself up to the authorities at Richmond.

Railroad Accident.

QUINCY, Ill., Oct. 1.—Last night a stock train was derailed on the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad, and thirteen cars loaded with stock were wrecked. The accident was caused by the spreading of the rails, the engine and four cars being thrown from the track. Two persons were quite seriously injured.

The New Paper.

The prospectus of the National Republican under the new management of Messrs. Clapp, Robinson & Chandler commits the paper to the support of a plan for the remonetizing of silver and making it a legal tender of equal value with gold for all debts due the Government and the people, and for a resumption of greenbacks, backed by the national faith, to an amount to the wants of business and trade, and which shall be received the same as gold.

NEW YORK CITY.

Disaffected Republicans.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—At a meeting of prominent Republicans, held, Saturday night, in the Union League Club, for the purpose of making arrangements for the holding of a mass meeting whereat the policy of President Hayes shall be sustained and the action of the Republican Convention at Rochester strongly rebuked, several addresses were made denouncing Senator Conkling and denouncing the action of the Convention in its totally disrupted the Republican party in this State. The meeting was unanimous in holding a grand mass meeting to support and stand by the Administration. The Committee of Fifty was empowered to issue a call and fix a date for the meeting.

Sign of a Business Revival.

The number of ships that left the port Saturday was unusually large, larger than on any single day for a long time. Nearly all of them were bound for European ports, and were laden with general cargoes. This is one of the most significant and trust signs of a real business revival.

New York State Convention.

National Associated Press to the Star.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 1.—None of the delegates to the Convention have arrived as yet, but from letters received from various local leaders throughout the State the impression prevails that a new ticket will be nominated by the Democrats next Wednesday. The disclosure of Tweed on Saturday have completely demoralized the leaders here who were the principal advocates of the renomination of the present officers. No names except that of Beach for Secretary of State and Alcott for Comptroller are suggested.

Gov. Robinson, who it is said was an earnest advocate of the renomination of the old officers, has grown lukewarm and now insists that the Democratic principle of allowing the free expression of the people through their delegates shall be strictly adhered to and no person foisted upon the Convention for any office simply because he (Governor Robinson) may have at one time thought such a nomination advisable.

Serious Fire.

National Associated Press to the Star.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—A fire caught from the sparks of a locomotive in the roof of the large block on the corner of Meridian street and the Union Railroad tracks at noon to-day.

The weather was very hot and the roof of Nos. 143, 145 and 147 were soon a mass of flames. The rear extensions and two upper stories burned out. The two lower stories and the cellars were saved by the strenuous efforts of the firemen.

Wiles, Coffin & Smith, wholesale grocers, lost largely; Mooney, Taylor & Smith, leather, lids and belting, partial loss of stock; John B. Stumpt, wholesale liquor, loss light; C. A. Moffatt, show cases, loss light. The loss on the building will probably reach $25,000. The insurance has not yet been ascertained. The C. C. C. & I. Railroad offices sustain loss from water.

Guyler, of Milwaukee, for Secretary of State; George Kesper, of Jefferson, for Treasurer; Edwin Peters, of Oshkosh, for Attorney General, and Professor Eggers, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Child Actress, Mabel Leonard.

National Associated Press to the Star.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 1.—The order issued by Judge Donohue some time since for contempt of Court in not producing the child actress, Mabel Leonard, was complied with yesterday morning by the arrest of Mabel and her mother, Mrs. Rogers, at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn. The girl had been removed from the jurisdiction of the New York Courts, and until the engagement of Miss Clara Morris at the Brooklyn Academy, Mabel could not be found. Mother and daughter will be taken before Judge Donohue at the Superior Court to-day.

The Southern Pacific.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The regular passenger train over the Southern Pacific crossed the bridge over the Colorado River yesterday morning, and brought the United States mail, passengers and express into Yuma. Hereafter trains will arrive and depart regularly from the Yuma side of the river, thereby doing away with the annoyance of ferrying passengers and mail, as heretofore.

Stock Yards, took fire yesterday. The two upper floors, with their entire contents, were badly damaged. The stock on the second floor suffered considerably, while the lower floor escaped with comparatively a small loss. The building was insured for $15,000. The actual loss may reach $35,000.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, James McKeehan; Vice President, Mathew Ryan; Recording Secretary, Daniel F. Evans; Treasurer, B. Frank D. Vio. In addition to Mr. Luther Parker the Association authorized any member who might attend to represent the Association in the convention at Keokuk.
